Vocation: A Calling From God - About Catholics
God calls each of us to a particular vocation in life. The Catholic Church defines both particular vocations as states of life including marriage, religious life, and priesthood, as well as a general vocation of all baptized believers.

"Here I am!" Call in the Old Testament | Catholics on Call

Webster defines vocation, a word that comes from the Latin vocare (to call), as a summons from God to an individual or group to undertake the obligations of a particular task or function in life; a divine call to a place of service to others in accordance with the divine plan.
