"Baby Be Mine" is the second book in the series, and actually, I like it a bit better than book one. The writing was above-average, the story interesting, and the chemistry achingly believable. I don't normally give 5 stars to books like this (I try to reserve that ranking for the "Pride and Prejudice"s of this world), but for a contemporary romance, this is almost as good as it gets. And its Baby Be Mine \(Johnny Be Good, #2\) by Paige Toon Baby Be Mine was everything I had hoped for and more. Paige Toon must have some sort of magic, because I was enthralled, as I have been with ALL of her books. It is rare that an author can do that consistently. The same chemistry was present between Meg and Johnny a
