The first half of this book was among the best I've ever read. It was non-stop action and it was easily the most exciting beginning to a book I've read. So the first half of the book was worthy of 7 stars. That means the 2nd half of the book wasn't very good. This is an action series there doesn't.

Blood and Ashes (Joe Hunter, #5) by Matt Hilton - Goodreads

Blood and Ashes is everything you want from a thriller, a Joe Hunter thriller at that, and (almost) nothing you don't want. Not surprisingly, for a thriller series written by an Englishman, featuring an Englishman as hero, it's probably the most American thriller in the series so far (for me, that is).

Matt Hilton - Book Series In Order

Author Hilton used to think of his father as a natural storyteller. He even considered natural that his active imagination allowed him to remain indulged in reading and writing books. During his early teenage years, Matt had written a coming-of-age novel titled Aggro, which was followed by a few heroic fantasy novels.
