So, with that made clear, on to 'Diving Belles'. The rather lovely people, from Mr B's Reading Emporium in Bath UK, chose this one for me - and what a choice it was. Perhaps they chose it because, like the author, I live in Cornwall.

A Bookish Way of Life: Diving Belles by Lucy Wood

Diving Belles by Lucy Wood Quirky and enchanting with a twist of darkness, the short stories in Lucy Wood's, Diving Belles , span the spectrum from strange to really strange. There are husbands who leave their wives for mermaids, a woman slowly turning to stone, and a house that keeps an eye on its inhabitants.
