Far Afield by Susanna Kaysen - Goodreads
Susanna Kaysen's "Far Afield" is a book filled with lovely prose and great characterization. It isn't a plot driven novel, but it makes me smile to know the level of detail taken into one character's psych. It is enormously satisfying in the end, and a lot of beautifully detailed passages. Highly recommended. It starts off slow, but then picks up.

FAR AFIELD by Susanna Kaysen | Kirkus Reviews
Kaysen has done an impressive job of revealing both the limitations and the deep comforts of a tradition-bound way of life. In her wise, playful and affectionate portrait, these chilly northern islands become as warming as a glass of aquavit.

Bookfoolery : Far Afield by Susanna Kaysen

Far Afield is so skillfully crafted, beautifully written and insightful that I can already tell you it's got a pre-built slot in my top reads for 2011. Susanna Kaysen's writing has a depth I haven't encountered for a while and it really blew me away. You not only get such a well-defined sense of place that you feel the cold and the wind, smell the fishy ocean tang and hear the sheep, but also
