Ghost Dances by Josh Garrett-Davis - Goodreads

Ghost Dances is unlike any other book about the Great Plains. A genre-bending read that blends memoir with history with reportage, Garrett-Davis has a voice that is distinct on the page. How many books about South Dakota include a mix-tape roundup of early 1990s punk rock and its relationship to small town ennui? Of particular interest to me was the chapter on the hatemongers at Westboro. Josh Garrett-Davis - Home
