How to Be Secular: A Call to Arms for Religious Freedom ...

The trouble with secularism in America today, if I am understanding the message of Jacques Berlinerblau's 2012 published book, How to Be Secular: A Call to Arms for Religious Freedom, is that it is too secular. What's needed is to pare back the passion to a more homogenized, secular-life, replace the harsh sounding secular with the less abrasive secularish and become much more

How to Be Secular: A Call to Arms for Religious Freedom by ...

Berlinerblau gives a fairly deep history of religion and religious freedom in the US, as well as the legislative battles that have been fought for the last 450 years. He outlines the value of retaining a secular government as well as the dangers to religion should the wall of separation fall.
