Nine Months by Paula Bomer (A Review by Dawn West)

Posted on September 27, 2012 by Roxane Gay There are plenty of books and films about men fleeing domesticity, about men who resist the surrender of self that making a family requires, about men who are ambivalent about being a husband and a father, with all its joys and failures.

On the Road, with Child: 'Nine Months' - PopMatters

In Nine Months, Bomer takes these attitudes head-on, in blunt, brave writing. Brave because moralistic attitudes about women, childbirth, the sanctity of motherhood, and the idea that real mothers
