Once A Gentleman by Candice Hern

Once A Gentleman however is one book that I not only enjoy but also a book that engages my emotions to make me smile, laugh, and sigh with the characters from start to finish. Also, this is one book where I find the characters real and their relationship developed well enough for me to find the love story satisfyingly romantic.

Once a Gentleman by Candice Hern - Goodreads

Didn't read the 2 books before this series, both sound like a promising stories but after finishing "once a gentleman" not feel that much confidence into reading them. Don't misunderstand me please I did like the story it just that I found Prudence so mousie and Nicholas too arrogant.

Like I have lived with your stubborn male pride for some time now, she said in a soft voice, enunciating each word slowly and deliberately. And I have never complained. I allowed my deep affection for you my love for you to blind me to your weaknesses.
