Edition by Sacrificial Magic continues this trend with new mysteries and more character chaos. My hope is Stacia Kane can evolve Chess in future books more than she has done so already. Each book Chess' habits get a little worse and while other aspects of her life might marginally improve she is on a dangerous path. I feel like the series

It is book #4 of the Downside Ghosts series and Chess is an established character with all her flaws and quirks. I just don't get them all. I am hoping that the series is better when it is read in order (so I am giving it a generous 3 star rating - for now). I am also planning on reading this series from book #1 through to at least "Sacrificial Magic" so that I can re-write this review and
