Book Review Sex God by Rob Bell | onehandclapping

So I recently finished reading Rob Bell's new book Sex God and I have mixed feelings about it. I'm not a fan of his write-like-I-talk style (although I love his preaching, he is in fact the only person I can stand to listen to recorded), but that's a hurdle I dealt with with Velvet Elvis.

Ben Witherington: Rob Bells' 'Sex.God' Book-- a First Rate ...

The first thing we need to make clear about the title 'sex god' is that Rob is not talking about some sort of fertility deity, like the ancient near eastern fertility gods (e.g. Baal, Astarte). He is talking about the connection between sexuality and spirituality and how the former figures forth the latter in various ways. It is a profound subject, and one well worth pursuing. And let it be

Life like the Morning Fog: Sex God by Rob Bell

But when my church started talking seriously about the book Sex God by Rob Bell, I found myself getting pretty interested. I thought it would be about what "typical Christians" have to say about sex. I was a little put off at the idea of that, but if the off-balance or somewhat nontraditional people of Jacob's Porch wanted to read it, then it was probably worth checking out. There are two
