I didn't love it, but Amy Gail Hansen pulled me into her story easily and early. The mystery is intriguing, the characters are well-drawn, and the writing itself is sold. Part mystery, part thriller, the author blends together the various aspects of The Butterfly Sister into an interesting and compulsively readable novel.

Amy Gail Hansen, The Butterfly Sister, 6 likes, Like The past is a funny thing, Ruby. It is nature's most underestimated ghost. It is still very much alive. Its heart still beats, it haunts, and it is always impacting, always dictating the future, which eventually becomes the past. You see, it multiplies, this enigma.
