The Doctor's Mission by Debbie Kaufman is a pioneering missionary romance set in Liberia, Africa during the early 1900s. This is a surprising addition to the Love Inspired Historical line because of its theme, characterization, realism, depth of story, and setting - a book that stands out among others in this line. I am drawn to missionary stories because of the dedication and commitment it takes to leave the relative comfort of home and go into an unfamiliar culture - and in many areas

As a Loveinspired The Doctor s Mission more than hits the mark. It is a sweet romance that still has titillating tension. The characters are well-developed and likeable, and the reader roots for the characters to get together. As a historical, the research shines and is woven into the story so that the reader is drawn in, instead of being hit over the head by the information. Its most
