Haruhiko Kindaichi (Author of The Japanese Language)

Haruhiko Kindaichi, one of Japan's most famous linguists, was a professor at Sophia University in Tokyo. He was also a well-known radio and television personality, having won the Cultural Broadcasting Award. A graduate of Tokyo University, Professor Kindaichi has published numerous books on Japanese linguistics, of which this is the best known and first to be translated into English. His father, Kyosuke Kindaichi, also a linguist, was noted for his pioneering studies of the Ainu language.

Amazon.com: The Japanese Language: Learn the Fascinating ...

Kindaichi examines the origins and evolution of Japanese, what you can and cannot say in the language, and how sentences and expressions are constructed. This is an academic work, and some of the text is a little dry.
