The Long Night by Poul Anderson - Goodreads
"The Long Night", by Poul Anderson, is set several centuries in the future. Sometime before the book begins, humans have explored and settled millions of planets, but then star-faring civilization fell. The settled planets became isolated from each other. Some sank into barbarism, some managed to retain technological civilization, but there is little interstellar travel.

some of Anderson's best stories, Dominic Flandry does not appear in any of them. Coincidence? Maybe not. Instead of the same old Flandry, we get to see other characters. For example, John Ridenour, a man who loves his wife and stays faithful to her even when he is thousands of light-years away on an alien planet. It's refreshing. The cover
