The Lover by Marguerite Duras Reading Matters

The Lover is narrated by H Lne Lagonelle, a French woman looking back on her life in Indochina (now Vietnam) and, in particular, the romance she had with a wealthy Chinese man in 1929 when she was just 15. It's largely based on the author's own life she was born in Saigon (now Ho Chi Minh City) to French parents who had emigrated there to work in the French colony.
