The Moses Legacy by Adam Palmer - Goodreads

The Moses Legacy is a historical/religious conspiracy thriller in the vein of Dan Brown's popular bestsellers. Adam Palmer is a good storyteller and a suspense-weaver, rather than a writer of high literature, but this does not detract from the reader's overall enjoyment of the novel. The Moses Legacy (Daniel Klein Book 1) eBook: Adam Palmer ...

When fragments of stone covered in a mysterious ancient script are found in Egypt, language expert Daniel Klein is called in to help. Daniel believes that the stone's origins, if revealed, could be potentially explosive, but others are determined to prevent the truth from seeing the light of day. The 'Moses Legacy' formed only a minor part of the bigger terrorist conspiracy. As a bit of light reading it delivers, although the writing was not the best. However, I think this is worthy of 2.5 stars and Klein's character is such that I may take a look at the next book in the series at some point.
