Erin McGraw: The Seamstress Of Hollywood Boulevard

Nell Presser, the hero of Erin McGraw's second novel, The Seamstress Of Hollywood Boulevard, has a particular talent in sewing: Women in her small, turn-of-the-century Kansas farming town come to her with the latest Vogue fashion illustrations and ask her to replicate them, but she goes further. She knows the invisible stitches and tucks each garment needs to create the illusion that the women have the bodies they imagine, rather than the ones they really have. The book's particular
