D'Souza, Tony | Encyclopedia.com

Tony D'Souza drew on his Peace Corps experiences to write his debut novel, Whiteman, which consists of a dozen parts, each of which can stand on its own. His protagonist, Jack Diaz, works for Potable Water International, an agency that digs wells and improves water quality. Jack was trained in Abidjan in the Christian southern part of this volatile country and now serves in Tegeso, in the

Tony D'Souza is probably the most "successful" writer with whom I have ever been associated at my school--whether among faculty and writers-in-residence or students (Tony is a relatively recent graduate). To see his first novel, "Whiteman," climbing a list of Amazon best sellers that includes Phillip Roth's "Everyman" not to mention all the books about training your dog or obtaining instant
