Wild Awake by Hilary T. Smith - Goodreads

The first quality that caught my attention while reading Wild Awake was Hilary Smith's writing style. Initially, I was very wary going into Wild Awake because I had heard that the main protagonist, Kiri, is a heavy drug-user and that the writing is crazy and unreadable.

ALPHA reader: 'Wild Awake' by Hilary T. Smith

Wild Awake is the debut young adult novel by Hilary T. Smith. Okay confession. I was not cool enough to know precisely who Hilary T. Smith was before reading Wild Awake.

Wild Awake by Hilary T. Smith Review - intothehallofbooks.com

Wild Awake by Hilary T. Smith is a fantastic book. I think, and I wouldn't hesitate to recommend it to people that love YA Contemporary with Issues, great turns of phrase, great characterization, and people that love books with art and music on the inside. I am sorry that my thoughts aren't more orderly on this one, but I think they are perfectly in line with the book, ironically, and I am Wild Awake - Hilary T. Smith - The Book Addict's Guide

In Hilary T. Smith's Wild Awake 17-year-old Kiri Byrd has been left alone for the summer by her parents. She's the nice, reliable, calm, focused child, the talented pianist getting ready for a major showcase who can be counted upon to water the azaleas and collect the mail while her parents go on a cruise and her brother conducts research. But everything upends for her when she gets a
